Feast of Corpus Christi

Parents want to give their children the best of everything—food, education, health care, clothes, etc. No one settles for second best. We get the best we can afford and the reward is seeing the happiness, health and success of our children!

Jesus sees the hungry crowds who had been listening to Him. The disciples want to dismiss the crowds, sending them to the towns and villages to find something to eat and a place to stay. But the Lord will not send them away empty. With the five loaves and a few fish, He feeds them, satisfying the hunger of both body and soul. He acts out of love for those who have followed Him and heard His voice.

When we receive the Eucharist, we do not receive just bread, or a symbol of God's goodness, or a representation of Jesus. The Lord does not give us anything less than Himself in the Eucharist. He loves us too much to give us anything less. There is no measure of love too great, nor any sacrifice beyond doing that would keep Him from loving us, saving us and keeping us for Himself. He is the gift of life, the gift of grace and the gift of love. Jesus would not have it any other way.

A NOTE FROM FR. DIPERRI

This weekend the Church throughout the world celebrates the feast of the Body and Blood of Christ, traditionally called, "Corpus Christi". This feast highlights the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. Jesus gave the gift of Himself in the Eucharist at the First Mass, on Holy Thursday, and asked that we celebrate Mass until He comes again in glory at the end of time. The Eucharist gives us graces necessary to live our lives in oneness with God, as we journey toward eternal life.

This Sunday I will joyfully celebrate Mass at 2 p.m. noting my twenty fifth anniversary of priestly service. I will do so in a spirit of praise and thanksgiving to the One God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and in gratitude for the protective care of the Blessed Virgin Mary. I am grateful to Almighty God for all the many blessings received throughout my life. My years as a priest have been filled with many opportunities to serve others for God. I love being a priest. I am grateful to God for the gift of my family, friends, each and every priestly assignment, as well as being pastor of Our Lady's Parish. Please continue to keep me in your prayers, and to pray for all priests, as well as to pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood, religious life, and for an active laity all firmly rooted in the Gospel call of Jesus Christ. May God continue to bless you and your family as we journey together in faith.
