2016 Mass of Remembrance

On Sunday, November 6 at the 11 am Mass we here at Our Lady's will remember all those that have died since last November.

Welcome Seminarian Daniel Zinger

Dear Parishioners,

My name is Daniel Zinger, the new seminarian who has been assigned to Our Lady's parish to learn from all of you. I am delighted that I will be here at Our Lady's parish for a full year with all of you to do a pastoral year, which is a part of the seminary training.

I was born and raised in the Syracuse area of upstate central New York. I have been in the seminary for four years and am studying for the Archdiocese of Boston. I have been thinking about priesthood since I was a child. Since I can remember, there has always been something in my heart that has moved me toward priesthood. After graduating from high school and after two years of undergraduate study, through prayer, discernment and spiritual guidance, I entered the seminary and began studies for priesthood. These four years of study and preparation for the priesthood have been some of the finest in my life. They have been both challenging and joyful. Jesus promises his disciples that whoever loses his life for His sake will find it. I am happy to have said "yes" to God.

I am 25 years old and a student at St. John's Seminary in Brighton, here in the Archdiocese. After this pastoral year, I will have a few more years of study until I will be ordained a priest for the Archdiocese of Boston. I very much look forward to spending this year with all of you to gain pastoral experience and learn how to be a good priest.

Please keep me in your prayers as I continue to walk this journey to the altar of God. Please know that you are in mine.

In Christ and Our Lady,
Dan Zinger

A Catechist's Prayer

Almighty God, give us your Blessing as we begin the new teaching year. May we approach our teaching task with deep faith and compassion, and with the same generosity that You always show us. In our teaching, may we seek only Jesus and His truth, may we boldly proclaim His teachings, may we praise His name with joy and may we call upon Him often in prayer. Lord God, may the children we teach experience the richness and power of prayer. Let them use prayer daily in their lives as a source of finding peace, unity, blessings and faith. We ask this through Jesus Christ, Your son. Amen.

Quincy College Trust Honors Fr. James Hawker

The Quincy College Trust, a nonprofit foundation established to receive charitable donations, scholarship and endowment funds in support of Quincy College, presented the 2016 Quintessential Award to the Reverend James F. Hawker at the Quintessential Reception on Thursday, September 15th. This Award is given to a person in the community who reflects the Quincy College spirit. The college said Fr. Hawker is a man who exemplifies what it means to support others in their journey to improve their lives, a mission he shares with Quincy College.

Clergy Health and Retirement Trust

The diocese-wide collection today will support the Clergy Health and Retirement Trust which cares for the health and well-being of our priests. In the Archdiocese of Boston, we are blessed to have 614 men who have devoted their lives to serving Christ and His family. Your gift to this collection will help provide our priests with an appropriate level of care and quality of life so they can continue sharing the good news, performing good works, and spreading good faith. Thank you for your generous and prayerful support of our priests.

September 18—Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today the Church celebrates Catechetical Sunday. The theme this year is “Prayer: The Faith Prayed.” The letter of Timothy fits nicely. He asks, “...that supplications, prayers, petitions, and thanksgivings be offered for everyone, for kings and for all in authority, that we may lead a quiet and tranquil life.” Very good advice especially these days which are far from quiet and tranquil. Timothy continues by reminding us that, “God our savior...wills everyone to be saved and to come to knowledge of the truth.” Today, pray in Thanksgiving for the many catechists and faith formation leaders and volunteers who help adults and children “come to the knowledge of the truth.” Pray, also, that your daily life will be a school of discipleship.
